AWOKEN BY OWLS (HOME SESSIONS)

Doin' Time

Well, I've been growing restless
Waiting for a change
Tomorrow's caught in the turnstiles
All tattered and frayed

I know you've seen me smile
But I can't today
Rolling over, trying to hide
To keep the sorrows at bay

Feels like I've been doin' time
Feels like I've been doin' time

What will it take to break
From a cage of your own making?
Gathered songs and stored up words
And a plan for escaping

Feels like I've been doin' time
Feels like I've been doin' time
Feels like I've been doin' time
Must be time to stop trying to hide

Well, I've been growing restless

Little April

Come on, April
Won't you come on in
Come on, angel
We're counting on your win
I hear you have a remedy
You see we have been suffering

We all need a little respite
We all need a little sunshine
Won't you come on in
Won't you come on in

Bring us colour
Brighten up the road
Arrive with levity
Lighten up our load

We all need reassurance
We all need a guide
Won't you come on in
Won't you come on in
Come on, come on
Come on, April

We have been burned
We have been hollowed by fire
We have been lied to
We have been separated, inundated
We have been denied
We have been left to die
We have been broken down
We have been broken down

I hear you have a remedy
You see we have been suffering

We all need a little April
We all need hope to rhyme
So come on in
Won't you come in Come on in
Come on, come on
Come on, April

Call You Home

When I wake in the night with my fear running wild
I've come to call you home
Recall the light that you gift and my senses shift
I've come to call you home

Ooh, I've come to call you home
Ooh, I've come to call you home

Follow me out 'neath the stars where I shout
I've come to call you home
Past the shadows and doubt there's a freeway out
I've come to call you home

Ooh, I've come to call you home
Ooh, I've come to call you home

When I'm lost in uncertainty, struggling to believe
Come to call me home
Waiting to be free from this relentless loneliness
Come to call me home

Ooh, come to call me home
Ooh, please, call me home

Raise Your Heart

Words never made it to paper
Like punching at the glass of a two-way mirror
It's I who's in my way

Blood's still pumping if you open a vein
Truth will bleed out if you put it to page
And I, I hear you say

Raise your heart just a little bit more, a little bit more
Raise your heart just a little bit more, a little bit higher, higher

The message comes as a thought, as a rule
Rise up, rise up, turn pain into fuel
And I, I must obey

Raise your heart just a little bit more, a little bit more
Raise your heart just a little bit more, a little bit higher, higher

I never wondered, I never wondered how to bleed
I only wondered, I only wondered how to breathe
We all will suffer, we'll always suffer
But maybe...

Raise your heart just a little bit more, a little bit more
Raise your heart just a little bit more, a little bit
Raise your heart just a little bit more, a little bit more
Raise your heart just a little bit, a little bit more

Go Deeper

All the doubt that weighs upon me
All the failures that have scarred me
All the reasons I've stayed hidden
I am rethinking, I am rethinking

Through the noise that wakes the demons
And the static come between us
I'll let you know me, I'll let you know me

We embark this road unknown
Heretofore we can't be sure

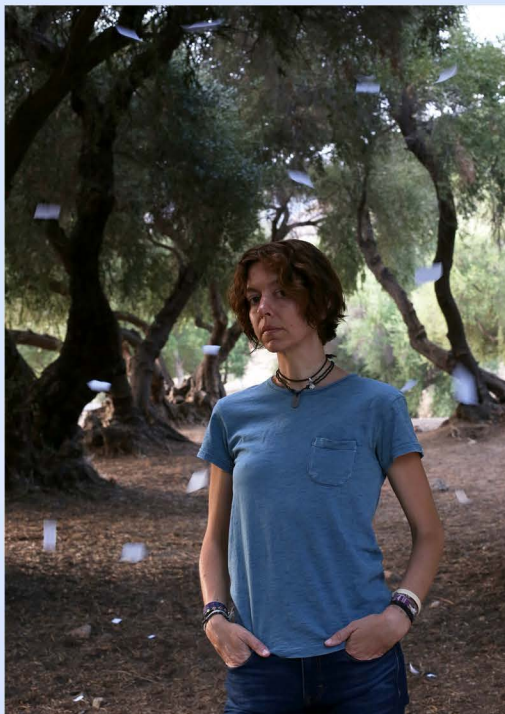

Let's go deeper, you said
Let's go deeper, you said

All the songs we are not singing
All the words we haven't written
Rise from depths we now are digging
We'll let them rain out, let them rain out

We will map roads overgrown
Here and on we must be sure
We'll be clear in our response
We will sing our truest song

Let's go deeper, you said
Let's go deeper, you said

Rise out, rise out giving
I'm ready for the receiving
I'll rise out, rise out giving
I'm ready for the receiving
The receiving
